

Peter Humeniuk

- An avid outdoorsman, born and raised along the North Shore of Lake Superior, he was inspired by Canada's Group of Seven and their painting of this magnificent shoreline
 - Attended Ontario College of Art and Design
 - Studied drawing and watercolours under Carl Schaefer , Fred Hagan
 - Started professional career as technical illustrator at Hawker Siddeley Canada in Thunder Bay , Ontario.
 - Promoted to Art Director of Woodlands Division
 - Left Hawker Siddeley to start own business
 - Sold business and started up Art Gallery
- Received commission for 280 original paintings for international hotel chain
 - Had two exhibitions at Toronto's O'keefe Center for National Ballet fundraiser
 - Feature artist for Portage Mutual Insurance Co. bi centennial calendar
 - Has been featured in Lake Superior Magazine as one of the "north shore's" emerging new artists
 - Participated in juried art exhibitions as well as juried art shows
 - Has been working as a professional watercolourist and instructor in art and design throughout Canada and the states as well as through his gallery in Thunder Bay for 20 years
 - Teaching experience:
 - Continuous weekend workshops and weekday classes in art and design in the Lake Superior Art Gallery in Thunder Bay
 - 2 five day workshops in Sackville, NB,
 - 7 weekend workshops in Matlacha, Fla.
 - Week workshop in Hot Springs, Arkansas, weekend workshop in Rockville, Illinois
 - 10 weekend workshops in Grand Marais, Mn
 - weekend workshops throughout Northwestern Ontario, Kenora, Dryden, Fort Frances, Atikokan
 - Half day workshop teaching High School teachers the language of art as well as continuous classes .
 - Member of Definitely Superior Art Gallery in Thunder Bay.
 - Co founder of the North Shore Watercolour Society.
 - Participated in 'artist in residence' program at Quetico Provincial Park 2008
 - Awarded Ontario Arts Council (Artist in Education) grant for teaching in Ontario Elementary and Secondary school system.